Facets | Art Exhibition at Fairholme

Friday 22 May – Sunday 24 May – Assembly Hall

In 2017, Fairholme College celebrated '100 Years At Fairholme' and as a part of the festivities to mark this exciting milestone, an inaugural Art Exhibition, the 'Facets of Fairholme', was held at the College. Following on from the success of this boutique exhibition, plans are underway to host the fourth such event on the 22 May – 24 May 2020. Works featured in the Exhibition will reflect the interests of the Artists, exploring a wide range of techniques and media. Artists will include Toowoomba, Regional Queensland and International artists. An Artists' in Conversation Breakfast will be held on Saturday 23 June. Tickets for the Official Opening and Breakfast can be purchased on the College Payment Portal.

String Soiree

Friday 5 June – (5 – 6pm) - Homestead

Our String Soiree will showcase students from Junior, Middle and Senior schools who have chosen to play an orchestral stringed instrument. This boutique event will feature performances from the Junior String Orchestra and the Senior Chamber Strings, as well as solo and small group items. Commencing at 4pm in the Cameron Room, afternoon tea will be available both before and after the concert.

Pre-Eisteddfod Concert

Monday 27 July – (6 – 7pm) - Assembly Hall

With up to 20 performance groups across Junior, Middle and Senior schools appearing in the Instrumental Sections of the Toowoomba Eisteddfod, please join us to support these enthusiastic young musicians as they hone their skills for the upcoming competitions.

Crème de la Crème Recital

Friday 7 August (5.30 – 8pm)

St. David's Presbyterian Church

The Crème de la crème concert will present a fabulous array of outstanding 'boutique' performances by our Senior Music Extension students, as they present their final assessment performances before a panel of adjudicators as well as items by our Senior Scholarship recipients. Audiences will no doubt be impressed by the depth and breadth of these talented students.

Senior Dance Showcase

Saturday 29 August – Assembly Hall

The Year 12 Dance Showcase will feature a fabulous array of dance styles created by the Year 12 dance class. Each Senior Dance student will present their final Performance or Choreography Dance routine as part of their final assessment, which will also include a large number of senior and middle school students. The Dance showcase is the final event in the 2019 Kaleidoscope Concert Series and it will no doubt leave audiences wanting more. Don't miss the rhythmic beat, the bedazzled sequin costumes and fabulous lighting effects that will leave you breathless...
